YOU CAN TOUCH LIVES AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Art therapy in Ren Ci is a form of therapy that uses art as a way of expression and communication. It aims to provide a way to creatively explore and address seniors' psychosocial needs. One nursing home resident that has been receiving art therapy is 65 year-old Mr Peter Seng, who was first introduced to this form of therapy in 2018. By partnering our art therapist, Mr Seng is able to empower himself to resolve his inner conflicts and rediscover meaning through his life's experiences. Mr Seng draws and paint subjects such as waterscapes and historical events, as well as explores his identity through imaginative creations. His paintings have even been exhibited at the National Design Centre.

Your support helps fund programmes like this. Help others like Mr Seng go on a journey of exploration and rekindle old talents or find new ones while creatively celebrating one's life.

艺术治疗在仁慈是一种以艺术作为表达和交流方式的治疗形式。它可以为年长者提供一种创造性地探索及表达心理需求的方法。仁慈疗养院院友成瑞春先生自2018年以来就积极与艺术治疗师通过创意绘画,重新找回生命的意义,让内在充满动力。他以水景、历史事件等题材进行绘画,通过自己富有的想象力探索无限的创意能力。 他的作品也因此在国家设计中心的创意空间展示。

在您的善心捐助及鼎力支持下,仁慈可以帮助更多年长者从此类计划收益,创 造新希望及曙光。

ABOUT REN CI HOSPITAL

Since 1994, Ren Ci Hospital has been guided by the principles of loving kindness and compassion to provide affordable medical, nursing and rehabilitative care services to the elderly and underprivileged regardless of one's background, race and religion.

From a single Chronic Sick Unit with 174 beds, Ren Ci has grown to operate a total of 969 beds across a community hospital and two nursing homes, with a new 332-bed nursing home slated to open at the end of 2023. Annually, Ren Ci serves more than 2,000 patients, residents and clients, the majority of whom suffer from multiple medical conditions and come from low-income families.

With strong partnerships and support from donors, volunteers and the community, Ren Ci continues to serve our beneficiaries with heart and hope.
