“BECAUSE OF LOVE” CHARITY CONCERT RETURNS TO RAISE FUNDS FOR REN CI HOSPITAL & ASSUMPTION PATHWAY SCHOOL - Chyi Yu joins hand with Wakin Chau for a night of Love and Gratitude

Singapore, 18 January 2017 – After the successful Love and Remembrance Charity Concert 《怀念~因为有爱》慈善演唱会 in November 2015, the second instalment of the trilogy of concerts sponsored by Goh Lee Hiang Memorial Fund (GLHMF) will return on Saturday 6 May 2017 at The Star Theatre, The Star Performing Arts Centre.

Titled Love & Gratitude Charity Concert 《感恩~因为有爱》慈善演唱会, Taiwanese superstar Chyi Yu will partner her long-time friend Wakin Chau for this one-night only charity concert. Both artistes will perform pro bono to raise funds for two charities, namely Ren Ci Hospital and Assumption Pathway School.

Ren Ci Hospital was the sole beneficiary in the first charity concert. For this second charity concert, GLHMF aims to raise at least $2 million for two charities and Assumption Pathway School has been chosen as the 2nd beneficiary for their commitment to provide alternative educational pathway for the less academically inclined students in Singapore. Both of these charity organisations will share in the proceeds of this fundraising.

With over 60 albums between them, this charity concert brings together Chyi Yu and Wakin for the first time in Singapore for a charitable cause. They promise to stir reminiscence with their repertoire of Mandopop classics and popular hits, including their duet “Lovers of The World” 《天下有情人》.

Limited preferential donation tickets of $2,000 (Sponsor), $500 (VIP), $350 (CAT 1) and $200 (CAT 2) are available directly via Ren Ci Hospital (Karen @ 6355 6428) and Assumption Pathway School (Cecilia @ 6879 3639). Sponsor package at $2,000 per seat includes a pre-concert banquet dinner and a commemorative gift set, limited to the first 350 seats. Donation tickets will be entitled to 250% tax deduction.

GOH LEE HIANG MEMORIAL FUND

This concert is put together by Goh Lee Hiang Memorial Fund (GLHMF), dedicated to charitable causes in memory of the late Madam Goh Lee Hiang. The first performance of the trilogy of concerts - Love & Remembrance Charity Concert on 14 November 2015 raised about $2 million for Ren Ci Hospital, thanks to the four performing superstars: Chyi Yu (齐豫), Chyi Chin (齐秦), Jonathan Lee (李宗盛) and Stefanie Sun (孙燕姿).

This time round, GLHMF has invited Chyi Yu to return and partner her long-time friend, Wakin Chau (周华健) for the Love & Gratitude Charity Concert 2017. Together, the aim is to raise at least $2 million for two charity organisations, namely Ren Ci Hospital and Assumption Pathway School.

About the BENEFICIARIES

REN CI HOSPITAL

Ren Ci means loving kindness and compassion which are the guiding principles in our delivery of aged care services, serving all regardless of background, race and religion in Singapore. Over the years, Ren Ci has aggressively ramped up its services to meet the healthcare needs of a rapidly ageing population and is today one of the few charity healthcare institutions to provide quality and affordable medical, nursing and rehabilitative care services to the less privileged.

ASSUMPTION PATHWAY SCHOOL

Assumption Pathway School (APS) gives Singaporean students a second chance in life. An APS education is based on the belief that every individual has gifts and abilities which can benefit not only self, but also others in society. It specialises in providing primary school students, who are unable to move on to secondary school, an alternative educational pathway in the form of vocational training, such as Baking Practices, Hospitality Services and Culinary Skills, thus enabling them to live independent and successful lives.
