

Successful Large Group Outings

Outings are important in bringing an improved sense of well-being for our older adults, particularly for clients in our care setting. Multiple considerations and preparations are made when planning for large group outing. These considerations and preparations are important for the safety of both staff and clients. In this session, participants will learn about factors to consider when bringing clients out and the different things to look out for in different kinds of community outings. In addition, there would be hands on session to practice on the planning.
